The Joy of True Religion

SCRIPTURE

"O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him." Psalm 34:8 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

Sometimes, the deepest theological truths are best understood through the simple mind of a child. During one of our health retreats I gave my daughter some of the green juice that we give to the guests. She said she really like it and I asked her why. Her answer was profoundly simple: "It's yummy". I then asked her why she liked to eat to eat food and she replied, "Because it's fun".

We often make our Christian experience incredibly complicated, dry, and burdensome. We treat our faith like a bitter medicine we have to choke down to avoid going to hell. But Jesus said, "I am the bread of life." If we have truly encountered Christ, our religion should be deeply satisfying. It should be "pleasurable" and "enjoyable" to our souls.

If I ask a hundred Christians why they read their Bibles, go to church, or keep the Sabbath, many would give formal, duty-driven answers: "Because it's the truth," or "Because I want to go to heaven". But what if the answer was simply, "Because the Lord is good, and I have tasted His grace"? True Bible religion fills a practical, daily need in our lives. It is not just about avoiding error; it is about taking in something that brings genuine life, joy, and spiritual health.

Today, ask yourself: Is your faith dry and theoretical, or is it a vibrant, living reality? Stop treating your walk with God as a legalistic duty. Approach Him today with the simple, hungry desire of a child. Taste and see that the Lord is good.

PRAYER

Father, forgive me for making my religion a burdensome checklist. I want to experience the true joy and pleasure of knowing You. Help me to feed on Your Word today not out of obligation, but because it brings life and health to my soul. Amen.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How does personally experiencing God's goodness differ from outward religious duty?

2. Read Psalm 34:1–10. How does this passage deepen today's understanding of God's work in our lives?

3. What would it look like for you to thank God for a specific experience of His goodness?

Demonstrating the Glory

SCRIPTURE

"Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come..." Revelation 14:7 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

The First Angel's Message of Revelation 14 is often viewed as a stern warning and a strict command. It certainly is both of those things but it is also a beautiful invitation—an invitation to make a "demonstration" in this world. The angel calls us to "give glory to Him." But what is God's glory? In Exodus 33, when Moses asked to see God's glory, God responded by revealing His goodness, mercy, and "character". Therefore, to give God glory is to reflect His character to a dark world.

Revelation 18:1 speaks of another angel coming down with great power, and "the earth was lightened with his glory". The final movement of God's people on earth will not just be a group that holds the correct doctrines. It will be a group of people who are so saturated with the presence of Jesus that their lives become a literal demonstration of God's power and love.

We can preach the truth, and we can win theological arguments, but unless we are demonstrating the character of God in our homes, our workplaces, and our churches, our message is powerless. You are called to be a walking, talking display of the character of heaven. What kind of demonstration will your life make today?

PRAYER

Lord, I do not want to merely talk about Your truth; I want to demonstrate it. Lighten my small corner of the earth with Your glory today. Amen.

The Father's Name

SCRIPTURE

"And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads." Revelation 14:1 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

The book of Revelation describes a special group of end-time believers who stand with the Lamb: the 144,000. The distinguishing mark of this group is that they have "his Father's name written in their foreheads".

In the Bible, a name is not just a label used for identification; a name represents a person's character. To have the Father's name in your forehead means that your mind, your thoughts, and your actions have been completely molded into the character of God the Father.

Many of us preach about the Father. We tell people about His love, His Son, and His law. But unless we demonstrate the character of the Father, our preaching falls short. We can identify that God is a Father, but if we are harsh, impatient, proud, and unforgiving, we do not have His name in our foreheads. We just have a theoretical knowledge and not a real practical knowledge of who God is.

The forehead is the seat of the intellect, the conscience, and the will. What is currently written on your forehead? Is it the anxiety of the world? Is it the bitterness of a past hurt? Or is it the peaceable, loving character of the Father? You cannot write this name on yourself. You must stand with the Lamb, day by day, allowing His Spirit to imprint the divine nature upon your mind.

PRAYER

Father, I want Your name written on my forehead. I want my mind to be completely governed by Your character. Remove every trace of my own selfish nature today, and imprint Your perfect love upon my thoughts. Amen.

You Are What You Eat

SCRIPTURE

"Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you." John 6:53 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

There is a well-known saying that we're probably all familiar with: "You are what you eat". When we consume food, our digestive system breaks down the nutrients and the body uses those building blocks to create new cells. The food we eat is assimilated into our body, becoming our flesh, our blood, and our energy.

Jesus used this exact biological reality to teach a profound spiritual truth. He told His followers that they must "eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood." He wasn't speaking in a literal sense. He wasn't advocating cannibalism; He was talking about a spiritual assimilation.

It is not enough to just stand back and admire Jesus. It is not enough to agree with His teachings intellectually. Just as staring at a plate of healthy food will never nourish your body, merely reading the Bible without surrendering to it will never change your soul. We must take the life, the teachings, and the character of Christ into ourselves and assimilate them until His life becomes our life. When we face a trial, we must react with His patience. When we are attacked, we must respond with His forgiveness. We must consume the Word of God daily, digesting its promises, until our spiritual DNA is entirely transformed.

PRAYER

Lord Jesus, I do not want to just know about You; I want to assimilate Your life into mine. I feed upon Your Word today. Let Your thoughts become my thoughts, and let Your life become my life. Amen.

Beyond the Empty Ritual

SCRIPTURE

"For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come." 1 Corinthians 11:26 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

One of the greatest dangers in the Christian walk is allowing beautiful, life-giving truths to degenerate into dry, formal rituals. This is especially true regarding the ordinances of the church, such as Communion.

How often do we partake in the communion simply out of ritual habit? We wash each other's feet, partake of the communion bread, drink the juice, and go home but the heart is unchanged. We often times go through the motions in a "ceremonial" or "ritualistic" way. When we do this, the service can become empty and meaningless if the heart is not in it.

But God designed these ordinances to be a profound, symbolic invitation. When you take the bread and the cup, you are publicly declaring, "I am accepting the broken body and the spilled blood of Jesus to be the absolute source of my life." It is a pledge that you are willing to let His character take over your heart.

Do not let your faith become a hollow formality. Whether you are partaking in a communion service, returning your tithe, or keeping the Sabbath, do not just go through the motions. Look past the physical symbol and grasp the spiritual reality behind it. Let every act of worship be a fresh, intentional surrender to the Savior.

PRAYER

Father, protect me from the trap of dry, formal religion. I do not want to just go through the motions of worship. When I participate in the ordinances of Your church, let them be a deep, personal encounter with Your grace. Amen.

Laying Aside the Garments

SCRIPTURE

"He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself... and began to wash the disciples' feet..." John 13:4-5 (KJV)

DEVOTIONAL

In the upper room, Jesus performed an act that shocked the universe. The King of Glory got down on His hands and knees to wash the dirty feet of His arguing disciples. But before He washed their feet, the scripture notes a crucial detail: "He laid aside his garments".

This was a deeply symbolic act. In order to serve, Jesus had to take off His outer robe. Spiritually, we must do the exact same thing. If we are going to truly wash one another's feet, we must be willing to "lay aside our garments". We must strip away our selfishness, our need to be right, and our desire to have the last word. We must be willing to humble ourselves before the very people with whom we have differences.

One time long ago I had a time of contention with a brother. I had done something that deeply hurt him and that caused a rift in our relationship. During a communion service, I felt convicted to go to that brother and sincerely apologize. I had tears in my eyes as I washed his feet. It wasn't merely a symbolic act. It was a heartfelt plea for forgiveness and reconciliation.

Pride destroys relationships, but acts of humility and service heals them. Who is God calling you to serve today? Whose feet do you need to wash? Lay aside your heavy garment of pride, and pick up the towel of Christ.

PRAYER

Lord Jesus, Your humility breaks my heart. I am so often wrapped in the heavy, ugly garments of my own pride and self-righteousness. Help me to lay them aside today. Give me the grace to kneel and serve others even if I think they don't deserve it. Amen.

Sabbath Summary & Reflection

SCRIPTURE

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:16 (KJV)

SABBATH REFLECTION

This week, we learned that true religion should not be a dry ritual, but a deeply satisfying experience, like a child enjoying a good meal. We discovered that we must "assimilate" Christ's life—eating His flesh and drinking His blood—because a merely theoretical knowledge cannot save us.

Finally, we saw that when we lay aside our garments of pride and allow His character to fill us, our lives become a powerful "demonstration" of the Father's glory to the world.

On this Sabbath, we are invited to sit at the Master’s table and feast.

Reflect: Look back over this week. Has your spiritual life been a dry, formal routine, or have you truly fed upon Christ?

Evaluate: Have you been holding onto any "garments of pride" in your relationships? Is there someone whose "feet" you need to wash through an act of humble reconciliation?.

The Invitation: As you enter a new week, the call is to "Assimilate and Demonstrate"

Practical Application: Next week, when you sit down to eat your physical meals, let it be a trigger for your mind. As you take your first bite, silently pray:

"Lord, just as this food is becoming part of my physical body, let Your Word and Your character become part of my spiritual being today. Let me rely on You and your Word as much as I rely on physical food for life"

Consume His grace, and then go out and demonstrate His glory.

PRAYER

Dear Lord, thank You for the incredible invitation to share Your life. I accept Your invitation today. I want to assimilate Your character so deeply that the world can clearly see the Father's name in my forehead. Use my life as a demonstration of Your transforming love. Amen.
